

Company Profile

JRCC is an award-winning, municipal and civil engineering consulting firm. Since inception in 1981, JRCC's workforce has steadily developed into a dynamic team of engineers, technologists, scientists and support staff who are dedicated to the successful completion of every project. JRCC is committed to fundamental professional engineering principles by providing personalized, high quality and cost effective service and by being totally committed to each project's conclusion.

The team of professionals at JR Cousin Consultants Ltd. possess the knowledge, experience, and understanding to successfully provide consulting services for our clients, which include federal, provincial, urban and rural governments, First Nations, private corporations, industrial and commercial enterprises, entrepreneurs, and private developers.

JRCC conscientiously and consistently completes projects within budgets and defined schedules. JRCC emphasizes personal, one-on-one communication with our clients, which allows the principals and staff to ensure that services provided meet the needs of our client and the demands of the project.

Fields of Specialization

JRCC provides consulting engineering services in the following civil and municipal categories:

- Municipal and civil engineering
- Water source, treatment and distribution
- Sewage collection and treatment
- Waste disposal grounds
- Subdivision and development planning
- Community planning
- Land development
- Roads and drainage
- Pavement design
- Municipal buildings
- Geohydrology
- Topographical surveys
- Erosion control
- Flood protection
- Geotechnical

Recent Awards

2019 Project of the Year

JRCC was the design engineer for the Naotkamegwaning First Nation Water Treatment Plant Upgrade project, which received the Ontario Public Works Association 2019 Project of the Year Award in the Small Municipality and Communities category.

2019 Award of Merit

Association of Consulting Engineering Companies - Manitoba - Environmental Category for "RM of Rockwood/Stony Mountain Institute Wastewater Treatment Lagoon"

2015 Award of Merit

Association of Consulting Engineering Companies - Manitoba - Municipal and Water Technology Category for "Municipality of Sioux Lookout Water Treatment Plant Process Treatment"

2011 Award of Excellence

Association of Canadian Engineering Companies - Manitoba - Environmental Category for "White Lake Campground Wastewater Biofiltration Treatment and Disposal"

2010 Award of Merit

Consulting Engineers of Manitoba - Environmental Category for "Town of Lynn Lake Solid Waste Disposal Ground"